Delay in results of examinations conducted by SSC

2697. SHRI BRATIN SENGUPTA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Combined Main (Graduate Level) Examination, 1999 was held in January, 2000 by the Staff Selection Commission and the interviews were held in March, 2001;

(b) whether the results of the said examination is yet to be declared;

(c) if so, the reasons for taking such a long-time in announcing the results;

(d) whether UPSC conducts Civil Services Examination every year and the results for the same are announced within a year; and

(e) if so, why SSG can not adopt the same practice in announcing results of its various examinations, thereby saving valuable time of the candidates?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL AND TRAINING OF THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) Yes, Sir. The examinations and interviews were conducted for Scheme-A (Assistants Grade, Inspectors of Central Excise/Income Tax, etc., Sub Inspectors of CPOs/CBI and Scheme—B Divisional Accountants/Auditors/UDC, etc.).

(b) The results of the written examination under Scheme-A were declared on 26.12.2000. The final results in respect of Sub Inspectors in Central Police Organisations have been declared on 26.7.2001. The final results of the remaining categories in the Scheme-A have not been declared.

(c) The Combined Graduate Level Examination was held by the Staff Selection Commission for the first time. There were some initial difficulties leading to delay in declaration of the final result.

(d) The final results of the Civil Services Examination conducted by Union Public Service Commission are usually declared within one year of the date of holding the Civil Services (Preliminary) Examination.

(e) SSC is making all efforts to declare the results of all examinations within a period of one year from the date of examination.
